WELCOME NOTE

"As "thinking" remains the most important thing in life, I truly believe that answers are not as important as the question for the latter does have the greatest potential for meaningful change. I will rather the right question than the right answer."

Dear Thinking Colleague,

As thinking has the capacity to change any situation, the central purpose of the Aina Blankson Thinkers and Leaders Initiative ("AB-TLI") is to make the case that thinkers thrive on ideas, theories and remain insatiable in the pursuit of knowledge. These individuals are often introspective and driven by a deep curiosity for understanding towards change in whatever environment they find themselves. With the "Imaginative thinking" credo of Aina Blankson, the primary objective of AB-TLI is to expose promising young leaders including senior executives to the all-important and inescapable place of "thinking" in all they do or aspire to become. As "thinking" remains the most important thing in life, I truly believe that answers are not as important as the question for the latter does have the greatest potential for meaningful change. I will rather the right question than the right answer.

As a member of the AB-TLI, be it under the Executive Program, Fellowship Program or Internship Program, you will be exposed to the operations of Aina Blankson, our distinctive style of doing business and the overall essence of being an authentic leader. As Imaginative thinking is at the core of all we do at Aina Blankson, you will be expected to implement innovative solutions that address specific challenges, projects and exceed the expectation of clients. It is imperative to present cutting-edge ideas that integrate global standards as we share a conviction that if we think imaginatively, work creatively and lead with integrity, we will make the world a better place.

From the way we shape our advice, address challenges and strive for excellence, you should expect to be challenged and empowered to be the best version of yourself. You will work with a dedicated team to tackle several projects and expect to operate well out of your comfort zone at all times. Your ideas are invaluable and you will be required to hone your listening, communication and presentation skills, put forward suggestions and play an active role in your assigned teams. We want fresh creative ideas which can make a difference to our clients, our firm and society at large. In one word, you will be required to "Think, Rethink and Keep Thinking"!

I congratulate you and welcome you to the Aina Blankson Thinkers and Leaders Initiative. Enjoy your Thinking Experience!

Best Wishes.

Kehinde Aina, SAN
